El Salvador is standing strong against mounting pressure from world powers to legalize the killing of unborn babies in abortions. On October 20, the El Salvadoran Congress voted to reject a petition from pro-abortion groups that would have legalized abortions on unborn babies conceived as a result of sexual violence and unborn babies with severe deformities, according to AFP. The vote means the country will maintain its laws that protect each unborn baby's right to life and ban all abortions. "We have legislated in favor of protecting life from its conception," said Congresswoman Rebeca Santos, of the New Ideas party, according to the report. However, pro-abortion lawmakers slammed their peers for rejecting women's "right" to abortion, AFP noted. El Salvador recognizes each unborn baby's right to life in its constitution, stating "as a human person every human being from the moment of conception" in Article 1 ... Pro-abortion groups, funded by some of the richest men in the world, are putting pressure on countries across Latin America and Africa to legalize the killing of unborn babies in abortions ... Argentina fell to the pressure in late 2020, voting to legalize abortion for any reason up to 14 weeks and later in a wide variety of circumstances. Less than four months later, a young woman died along with her unborn baby in a legal abortion ... Approximately 42.6 million unborn babies were killed in abortions across the world in 2020, according to Worldometer. (LifeNews.com, 10/21/21)

"Adoption can be an enormously unselfish gift to a baby, not only as a way to give a child a secure, loving, stable family but to give that child the most precious gift of all—life." Dr. Jean Garton, former president of Lutherans For Life

"Maybe you enjoy showing hospitality to others, whether at home or as part of a joint effort at church. Perhaps you invite people who are lonely or people who are hungry or homeless or far away from home. Perhaps you are reaching out to refugees or to international students. Perhaps you take a casserole to a family with a new baby or buy toothpaste and toilet paper for the local homeless shelter. If so, you are showing hospitality to Jesus. What an honor to be able to do so!" Dr. Kari Vo, Lutheran Hour Ministries

"Christians engage in adopting not only because we desire to raise children but also—and above all—because the Most High desires their survival and salvation. We adopt because we have been so adopted. We adopt because little ones need homes. We adopt because we have homes and families to share. Life issues mean more than just political debates. Life issues involve more than just personal choices or someone else's problems. Life issues are always people and Gospel." Rev. Michael W. Salemink, Executive Director of Mission and Ministry for Lutherans For Life
