ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

Trinity Lutheran Church of Cole Camp, in conjunction with the Regional Ministry of Mt. Hulda, St. John's, Holy Cross churches, as well as the Sedalia Circuit, are planning the fourth annual Marriage and Family Conference to be held April 22 and 23, 2022 at Trinity.

This year's theme is, "Oh, Lord! What Shall I Do Now?" In two plenary presentations, Rev. Erik J. Rottmann will draw from Martin Luther's Fourteen Consolations and other resources to offer concrete, deliberate ways that each Christian can place the healing medicine of God's living Word onto those personal places in family life that hurt the most. Participants will also attend three breakout sessions on a wide range of topics related to marriage and family, worship together, and enjoy a Gemütlichkeit (food, drinks and fellowship) at a local restaurant in Cole Camp MO.

SPONSORSHIP

This year we plan to have the full conference like the ones provided in 2018 and 2019. Those events attracted as many as 150 participants from Henry, Pettis, Benton, and Morgan counties. People from Arkansas, Illinois, Kansas, Colorado, Iowa, and other parts of Missouri have attended the event as well. We are preparing for 200 people this year. We invite you to support this free conference for participants to grow in appreciation for God's wonderful gift of marriage and family. All sponsors will receive a Certificate of Participation and will have their name and level of participation included in the Conference Booklet. For more information, please contact Rev. Allen Braun (660) 668-2364. For more information visit our website www.marriagefamilyconference.org
