Israeli scientists have created the world's first "synthetic embryos." They used mouse stem cells to create embryos, nurtured them in an artificial "womb," and grew them for 8½ days—roughly the equivalent of three weeks of a human pregnancy. Their research, which was published in the journal Cell, is being acclaimed by scientists as a ground-breaking development. Inside the tiny mouse embryos, the researchers can see organs developing. ... The mouse embryos developed beating hearts, flowing blood, intestinal tracts, and cranial folds in the brain—even though they were created from scratch in a Petri dish. "This experiment has huge implications," says Bernard Siegel, of the World Stem Cell Summit, a group which lobbies for regenerative medicine. "One wonders what mammal could be next in line." Dr. Hanna's ambitions are immense. The ultimate goal of his start-up company, Renewal Bio, is "to make humanity younger and healthier by leveraging the power of the new stem cell technology" to solve ailments such as "infertility, genetic diseases, and longevity." He believes that there will be a huge market for products derived from synthetic human embryos. ... In other words, Dr. Hanna and his colleagues want to strip-mine human embryos which have been custom-made for their clients. (BioEdge.org, 8/16/22; CLR LifeWire, 8/18/22)

Speaking up For Life

"The people you tell today are the ones who get to tell the next group of people yet to be born. Someday our children will be telling their children about their Savior, knowing God's Word and His story of grace, because you model it and share it every day. Because you put your trust in God." Linda Buxa, Time of Grace

"God has taken away your sins. He has changed your heart. He gives you the ability to put yourself last so that you can humbly serve others. That's greatness and a great life in God's eyes. That humble serving attitude values and serves every life, whether that life is a few cells old or a gene short of worldly greatness." Rev. Peter Sulzle, St. John Evangelical Lutheran Church, Redwood Falls, Minnesota

"Gospel-motivated means we tell how Almighty God creates every human life as special, and that we treat them with that sanctity. It means we declare how He redeems every human life as precious, and that we demonstrate it to them. It means we proclaim how He calls every human life His own priceless treasure from fertilization to forever, and that we put it into practice." Pastor Michael Salemink, Executive Director, Lutherans For Life
