13,241 People Were Euthanized in Canada in 2022, Setting New Record – From Alex Schadenberg: Health Canada recently released the Fourth Annual Report on Medical Assistance in Dying (2022). The data is gathered from the reports submitted by the medical or nurse practitioners who carried out the death ... The report (2022) indicates that there were: 13,241 assisted deaths in 2022 up from 10,092 in 2021, 7611 in 2020, 5665 in 2019, 4493 in 2018, 2838 in 2017, and 1018 in 2016. The 2022 report also indicates that the number of assisted deaths increased by 31.2%, representing 4.1% of all deaths. The total of number of reported assisted deaths in Canada from legalization to December 31, 2022, was 44,958. The report indicates that euthanasia represented 3.3% of all deaths, which was up from 2.5% in 2021. The data indicate a big difference in the percentage of euthanasia deaths between provinces. According to the data, the percentage of all deaths that were euthanasia increased in all provinces ... This is the Second Health Canada MAiD report since the federal government expanded eligibility for euthanasia (MAiD) in March 2021 by passing Bill C-7 ... It is concerning that 2264 people (17.1%) died by euthanasia based on loneliness and isolation. Many people with significant medical conditions also live with loneliness and isolation. Social isolation and loneliness require a compassionate, caring community, not death by lethal injection. (Read more: alexschadenberg.blogspot.com.)

Speaking up For Life

“Tune out the NOISE of the lies, bury yourself deep into God’s Word of truth, and go forth with the life-affirming message, dressed in Christ’s priestly armor and standing as sentry in prayer!”
Lynette Auch, former president of Lutherans For Life

“Respect for God’s chain of authority holds true with the police, legislators, governors, presidents, and judges who have been placed over me. Some I may have chosen willingly, while others I may have voted against or had no say in. Still, we believe God has given them their authority. I may feel a responsibility to oppose their plans or question how they perceive and execute justice, but even then, I owe them respect and honor.”
Pastor Dan Guagenti, Holy Cross Lutheran Church, Shelbyville, Kentucky

“In the Christian calendar, secular time is swallowed up in Sacred Time, which is a foreshadowing of the eternal Day of the Lord, when all that we have foolishly sought after and worried about will vanish as will the night vanish on the dawning of the Lord’s Day. Rejoice, the Lord is near.” James M. Kushiner, executive director, Fellowship of St. James

Hope For Life

There’s Humanity even in suffering.
There’s still Opportunity in uncertainty.
There’s Promise even in weakness.
There’s still Enjoyment in the unexpected.

“Set your hope fully on the grace that will be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ.” (1 Peter 1:13b)

Wherever there’s Life, there is God’s grace and Christ’s compassion.

There’s HOPE for us.
There’s HOPE for them.
There’s HOPE for you.

God never gives up,
and neither do His people.
There’s HOPE in this.
