

LIFE NEWS—DECEMBER 2023

LUTHERANS
FOR LIFE

lutheransforlife.org

Life Newsbytes

Every year, Lutherans For Life/Y4Life participates in the March for Life in Washington, D.C. On November 14, the March for Life Education and Defense Fund announced the theme for the 51st annual March for Life: “Pro-Life: With Every Woman, For Every Child.” Since Roe v. Wade was first enacted, over 65 million lives have been lost to the horrors of abortion. Tragically, polling shows that many of these lives could have been saved if more women were aware of the vast network of pro-life resources across the nation that have lovingly supported women and children for over 50 years. “This year’s theme is at the heart of the pro-life movement, but it is a story often untold,” said Jeanne Mancini, President of the March for Life Education and Defense Fund. “For the past 51 years, the March for Life has powerfully witnessed to the tragedy of abortion while calling for stronger protections for women and the unborn. Yet nowhere is the beauty and importance of our work more powerfully embodied than in the day-to-day service of pregnancy support and maternity care organizations across the nation, which lovingly walk with women and their children, reminding them that they are never alone. This year’s theme celebrates the heroic work of these organizations while offering a roadmap to how we will truly achieve a life-affirming culture that respects the inherent dignity of all human life.” The 51st March for Life will be held on January 19, 2024. (LifeNews.com, 11/14/23)

Speaking up For Life

“Christmas is also a time to contemplate the gift of mortal LIFE through the miracle of birth. Christmas is the gift of LOVE that moms and dads shower on their children by saying yes to life—sometimes under very difficult circumstances. Regardless of the challenges, God has a perfect plan for each life that He brings into the world, and His will for them is to out-sparkle and out-shine any ornament.” Bradley Mattes, president of Life Issues Institute

“As sure as Christmas will come again on December 25, our Lord will come again. As we look forward to the Last Day, let’s dress for the occasion, putting on godliness and repentance. Let’s celebrate everything He did the first time He came to assure us of our home of righteousness. Let’s be spiritually awake and alert for His coming again, knowing that we will enjoy God’s perfect paradise, our eternal home.” Rev. Peter Sulzle, St. John Evangelical Lutheran Church, Redwood Falls, Minnesota

“There is no more clear-pointed, rest-giving demonstration of the love of God for you than the gift of His Son.” Paul Tripp, pastor, author, and conference speaker

lutheransforlife.org/resources/life-quotes

ORDER LFL RESOURCES AT WWW.CPH.ORG

Redeemed ... from the very beginning to the absolute end

Our Almighty Maker paints a bigger picture than one moment can behold. The God who gives you Jesus Christ plans further than you can perceive.

Every life has an important place, from fertilization to final breath. The sorrows belong to Him as much as the celebrations.

He creates each human being in His image, at every age and every stage. He redeems the whole race by His incarnation, whatever our appearances or abilities.

He calls us that all might endure forever as His own precious treasures in everlasting family, no matter our origins, experiences, or durations. His gracious reigning even incorporates surprise pregnancies and terminal diagnoses.

Our Savior’s coming in human nature proclaims and performs the sanctity of human life. We have the privilege to courageously declare and compassionately demonstrate the same:

Life is never a sentence. Life is always a whole story!

word-of-hope.org

