In Canada, where abortion remains legal at any stage of pregnancy without restrictions, healthy babies are routinely killed in the third trimester for reasons as simple as changing one's mind about parenthood. That's according to undercover investigations and abortion clinic admissions revealed in recent years. A 2023 undercover operation by pro-life advocate Alissa Golob, co-founder of the group RightNow, exposed what she described as a stark contradiction to claims that late-term abortions are reserved for dire medical emergencies. Posing as a pregnant woman seeking to end her third-trimester pregnancy, Golob visited abortion clinics in Montreal, Toronto, Calgary, and Vancouver. The resulting videos, edited from hour-long conversations, captured staff discussing options without requiring proof of fetal or maternal health risks. "You can tell the clinics anything, and they will accept it as a valid reason to abort a third-trimester viable baby," Golob said in reflections on the investigation ... "But there doesn't have to be a reason. It could just be, 'I don't want to be pregnant,'" said a Vancouver social worker ... Later-term procedures, defined by the Abortion Rights Coalition of Canada as after 20 weeks, persist without legal barriers. Speaking up For Life

"Do you ever doubt the love of God? Perhaps you are just 'looking for love in all the wrong places,' if you'll pardon the expression. Don't look to your own feelings and emotions, which can change with the wind, but look to Bethlehem and the manger. See God's love in this: that His only begotten Son was sent to be humbled and to die for you. Understand that at Christmas, 'God so loved the world that He gave ...'" Daily Devotion, Redeemer Lutheran Church, Sister Lakes, Michigan

"If heaven had been our home, would we have wanted to enter a world of grief and pain, of evil and death? Yet enter it Jesus did to give us His home to be ours forever. So, He loved us in undeserved grace. And so will we sing in the heavenly Jerusalem a refrain like that of our choirs: Hail, thou ever blessed morn, Hail redemption's happy dawn, Sing through all Jerusalem: 'Christ is born in Bethlehem.' Alleluia." Richard Gurgel, President, Martin Luther College, New Ulm, Minnesota

THAT THEY MAY HAVE LIFE

2026 Lutherans For Life Essay Contest

Our 2026 LFL Essay Contest Theme: That They May Have Life

Our theme verse: "The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly" (John 10:10).

The Lutherans For Life Council of Federation Presidents sponsors an essay contest each year for students in two grade categories: 6-8 and 9-12.

- This contest is available for students in all states who attend a Lutheran school or a Lutheran church.
- State essay contests precede the national essay contest. State essay winners in the two grade categories will be entered into the national contest. Note: Individual state rules may vary slightly, so be sure to access those rules through the state links and listings below.
- Some states have LFL State Federations. If you are a student in a state without a federation, you can participate through the Non-Federation Essay Contest.

We look forward to students across the nation participating in our contest and letting their voices be heard through their life-affirming essays!
