Expanding Our Ministry Efforts Because of You

Volunteer Relations

- Frontline Playbook – Hopeful | The second Frontline Playbook, Hopeful, will be launched during the first quarter of 2026. The Playbook contains four topical presentations and associated resources (video presentation, devotion, fact sheet, activity sheet) that can be used for an event or Bible study.
- Life Projects – Our Volunteer Relations team has a Life Projects section that can help you find interesting projects to carry out in your own life ministries. Go to lutheransforlife.org/life-projects.
- 2026 Lutherans For Life Essay Contest – Our Theme: That They May Have Life. Our theme verse: "The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly" (John 10:10). lutheransforlife.org/2026-lutherans-for-life-essay-contest

Word of Hope

- Create a job description for professionally trained church workers to assist with the Word of Hope hotline as volunteers.
- Revise our Word of Hope brochure and create a Word of Hope promotional kit.
- Eleven individuals are participating in the Word of Hope mindfulness classes this winter. The classes run from January 6 to March 6 and provide an opportunity for individuals to focus on being actively present with the Lord while making wise decisions based on Christ-centered values.

Y4Life

- YLife in Washington, D.C., took place this year from January 22-24 and included the National March for Life and more than 530 youth, young adults, and adult leaders from around the country.
- Speakers at the Y4Life in Washington, D.C., Conference included Ryan Bomberger, author and co-founder of The Radiance Foundation; Dr. Donna Harrison, former president of the American Association of Pro-Life OBGYNs; and Rev. Matthew Harrison, President of the LCMS!
- Started social media posts on liturgical living for YAForLife; completed Life Journey Series on the 10 Commandments for Y4Life Jr; created Lil' Lessons Plans: "Friends For Life/Amigos de Christo" for Lil' Lutherans.
