Deaconess Rachel Geraci, R.N.
“Surviving and Thriving”

Rachel is the wife of Rev. Coleman Geraci, and the mother of Augustana, Simeon, Magdalena, and Titus. She received a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Indiana University in 2011, as well as a Masters in Deaconess Studies from Concordia Theological Seminary in 2017. She currently resides in Milan, Michigan, where she cares for her family as a stay-at-home mom and homeschool teacher. Previously, she worked as a Registered Nurse in Cincinnati and as the Mission and Ministry Director at Lutherans For Life from 2018-2020. Rachel enjoys cooking, spending time with family, and marveling at the good gifts God has given her.
