

LIFE NEWS—APRIL 2026

LUTHERANS FOR LIFE

lutheransforlife.org

Life Newsbytes

Päivi Räsänen, a Christian lawmaker and Member of Parliament from Finland, was convicted on March 25 of a hate crime for a 2004 church pamphlet citing biblical teaching on human sexuality. The conviction came even as the nation's Supreme Court unanimously cleared her of charges for quoting the same Scripture on social media. Räsänen, a member of Parliament with the Christian Democrats since 1995 and a former interior minister who is solidly pro-life, and Lutheran Bishop Juhana Pohjola were found guilty in a 3-2 split decision under the "war crimes and crimes against humanity" section of Finland's criminal code. The conviction stems from the pamphlet "Male and Female He Created Them," which Räsänen wrote and Pohjola published for their church. The court ruled that they had made available to the public "opinions that insult homosexuals as a group on the basis of their sexual orientation." Justices acknowledged the content "did not incite violence or hatred" and described the conduct as "not particularly serious," yet still held the pair criminally liable ... "I am shocked and profoundly disappointed that the court has failed to recognize my basic human right to freedom of expression," Räsänen said. Source/read more: www.lifenews.com/2026/03/26/christian-mp-convicted-of-hate-crime-for-quoting-bible-verse.

Speaking up For Life

"Friend, you have a good word to speak to your neighbor. You have God's Word of life to share—with your spouse, your children or grandchildren, your co-worker or friend. You can tell them that their life is sacred, a gift of God, and that their life matters to you." Rev. Robert Mohns, Lutheran Church-Canada

"Commit to seeking opportunities to be a light to those living in darkness. Do not place that responsibility on the full-time leaders of the Church. This is your mission in life. God has uniquely placed you in the exact situations, locations, and relationships to make the Light of the world visible and concrete. You are the look of Christ's face. You are the tone of His voice. You are the touch of His hands. You are the physical representation of His light in a dark world (Ephesians 5:8). How bright will you shine this year?" Paul David Tripp, author and speaker

"Perhaps as our culture seems to be increasingly more challenging, it may help to think of hope as the complete opposite of despair. Hope is not optional for the believer. Our hope is secure because, as we all say again, 'Christ is risen! He is risen indeed!'" John Stonestreet

Order LFL Resources

at cph.org

FOR ALL WHO WILL BELIEVE

BY REV. DR. ARIC FENSKE

In the 17th chapter of his Gospel account, St. John gives us a front-row view of our Lord's final moments before being arrested and sentenced to death. In these last hours, we see Jesus doing something remarkable. He's praying. That may not sound all that surprising at first—until we see who He was praying for. In the face of torture, ridicule, and death, Jesus didn't pray for Himself, He prayed for His disciples and "for those who will believe in Me through their word" (John 17:20).

In those last agonizing moments, Jesus prayed for His Church, for the generations of believers who would come to faith after His resurrection and ascension through the ministry of the apostles. In other words, Jesus spent His last hours praying for you! Before He offered up His life as a ransom for your sins, He prayed that one day you would hear this Good News, believe it by faith, and receive His salvation unto everlasting life.

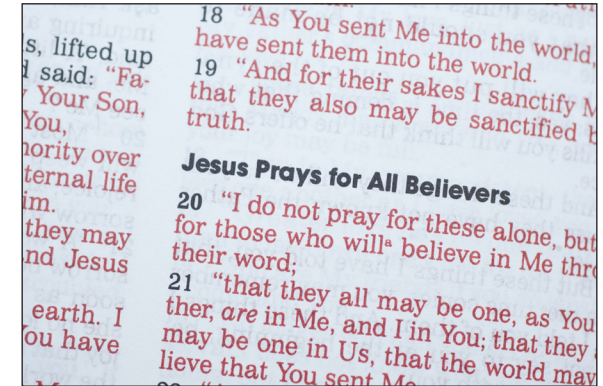

I don't know about you, but it is both humbling and awe-inspiring to know that Jesus was thinking of me and of my salvation as He walked that lonely road through the valley of the shadow of death. What love He must have for me!

Of course, that love is not just for me, or for you, but for all "who will believe" in Him. Jesus shows His love for every one of His precious sheep in this prayer. He prayed for countless others whose faces and names are known only to Him—unborn children, single mothers, the diseased and the dying. Jesus prayed for them all before He died because He died for them all.

And that means that you were not only the subject of Jesus' prayer that night in the garden of Gethsemane; in a way, you are also the answer to that prayer because God, in His grace, has chosen you to be His hands and feet and mouths to love and serve those countless unborn babies, troubled mothers, and sick and dying children of God. You do this in your own homes and congregations by reflecting Christ's love to those around you, and you do this by supporting our work at Lutherans For Life through your prayers and financial gifts.

I thank God for you all. I am thankful that He has preached His Word to you and has created faith in you by the power of His Holy Spirit. And I am thankful that He has motivated you to share that Word with others, that they too might know the love of Christ and the promise of life that is found only in Him.

I pray that our meditation on the suffering and dying of our Lord will be a blessing to you and that those blessings will continue to extend from you to all your neighbors.

LIFE NEWS—APRIL 2026

LUTHERANS
FOR LIFE

lutheransforlife.org

Life Newsbytes

Päivi Räsänen, a Christian lawmaker and Member of Parliament from Finland, was convicted on March 25 of a hate crime for a 2004 church pamphlet citing biblical teaching on human sexuality. The conviction came even as the nation's Supreme Court unanimously cleared her of charges for quoting the same Scripture on social media. Räsänen, a member of Parliament with the Christian Democrats since 1995 and a former interior minister who is solidly pro-life, and Lutheran Bishop Juhana Pohjola were found guilty in a 3-2 split decision under the "war crimes and crimes against humanity" section of Finland's criminal code. The conviction stems from the pamphlet "Male and Female He Created Them," which Räsänen wrote and Pohjola published for their church. The court ruled that they had made available to the public "opinions that insult homosexuals as a group on the basis of their sexual orientation." Justices acknowledged the content "did not incite violence or hatred" and described the conduct as "not particularly serious," yet still held the pair criminally liable ... "I am shocked and profoundly disappointed that the court has failed to recognize my basic human right to freedom of expression," Räsänen said. Source/read more: www.lifenews.com/2026/03/26/christian-mp-convicted-of-hate-crime-for-quoting-bible-verse.

Speaking up For Life

"Friend, you have a good word to speak to your neighbor. You have God's Word of life to share—with your spouse, your children or grandchildren, your co-worker or friend. You can tell them that their life is sacred, a gift of God, and that their life matters to you." Rev. Robert Mohns, Lutheran Church—Canada

"Commit to seeking opportunities to be a light to those living in darkness. Do not place that responsibility on the full-time leaders of the Church. This is your mission in life. God has uniquely placed you in the exact situations, locations, and relationships to make the Light of the world visible and concrete. You are the look of Christ's face. You are the tone of His voice. You are the touch of His hands. You are the physical representation of His light in a dark world (Ephesians 5:8). How bright will you shine this year?" Paul David Tripp, author and speaker

"Perhaps as our culture seems to be increasingly more challenging, it may help to think of hope as the complete opposite of despair. Hope is not optional for the believer. Our hope is secure because, as we all say again, 'Christ is risen! He is risen indeed!'" John Stonestreet

Order LFL
Resources

at cph.org

LIFE NEWS—APRIL 2026

LUTHERANS
FOR LIFE

lutheransforlife.org

Life Newsbytes

Päivi Räsänen, a Christian lawmaker and Member of Parliament from Finland, was convicted on March 25 of a hate crime for a 2004 church pamphlet citing biblical teaching on human sexuality. The conviction came even as the nation's Supreme Court unanimously cleared her of charges for quoting the same Scripture on social media. Räsänen, a member of Parliament with the Christian Democrats since 1995 and a former interior minister who is solidly pro-life, and Lutheran Bishop Juhana Pohjola were found guilty in a 3-2 split decision under the "war crimes and crimes against humanity" section of Finland's criminal code. The conviction stems from the pamphlet "Male and Female He Created Them," which Räsänen wrote and Pohjola published for their church. The court ruled that they had made available to the public "opinions that insult homosexuals as a group on the basis of their sexual orientation." Justices acknowledged the content "did not incite violence or hatred" and described the conduct as "not particularly serious," yet still held the pair criminally liable ... "I am shocked and profoundly disappointed that the court has failed to recognize my basic human right to freedom of expression," Räsänen said. Source/read more: www.lifenews.com/2026/03/26/christian-mp-convicted-of-hate-crime-for-quoting-bible-verse.

Speaking up For Life

"Friend, you have a good word to speak to your neighbor. You have God's Word of life to share—with your spouse, your children or grandchildren, your co-worker or friend. You can tell them that their life is sacred, a gift of God, and that their life matters to you." Rev. Robert Mohns, Lutheran Church—Canada

"Commit to seeking opportunities to be a light to those living in darkness. Do not place that responsibility on the full-time leaders of the Church. This is your mission in life. God has uniquely placed you in the exact situations, locations, and relationships to make the Light of the world visible and concrete. You are the look of Christ's face. You are the tone of His voice. You are the touch of His hands. You are the physical representation of His light in a dark world (Ephesians 5:8). How bright will you shine this year?" Paul David Tripp, author and speaker

"Perhaps as our culture seems to be increasingly more challenging, it may help to think of hope as the complete opposite of despair. Hope is not optional for the believer. Our hope is secure because, as we all say again, 'Christ is risen! He is risen indeed!'" John Stonestreet

Order LFL
Resources

at cph.org

FOR ALL WHO WILL BELIEVE

BY REV. DR. ARIC FENSKE

In the 17th chapter of his Gospel account, St. John gives us a front-row view of our Lord's final moments before being arrested and sentenced to death. In these last hours, we see Jesus doing something remarkable. He's praying. That may not sound all that surprising at first—until we see who He was praying for. In the face of torture, ridicule, and death, Jesus didn't pray for Himself, He prayed for His disciples and "for those who will believe in Me through their word" (John 17:20).

In those last agonizing moments, Jesus prayed for His Church, for the generations of believers who would come to faith after His resurrection and ascension through the ministry of the apostles. In other words, Jesus spent His last hours praying for you! Before He offered up His life as a ransom for your sins, He prayed that one day you would hear this Good News, believe it by faith, and receive His salvation unto everlasting life.

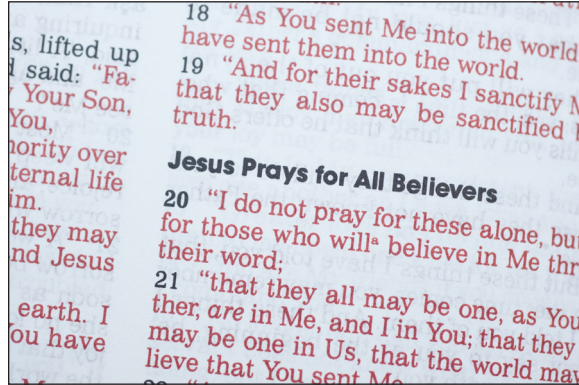

I don't know about you, but it is both humbling and awe-inspiring to know that Jesus was thinking of me and of my salvation as He walked that lonely road through the valley of the shadow of death. What love He must have for me!

Of course, that love is not just for me, or for you, but for all "who will believe" in Him. Jesus shows His love for every one of His precious sheep in this prayer. He prayed for countless others whose faces and names are known only to Him—unborn children, single mothers, the diseased and the dying. Jesus prayed for them all before He died because He died for them all.

And that means that you were not only the subject of Jesus' prayer that night in the garden of Gethsemane; in a way, you are also the answer to that prayer because God, in His grace, has chosen you to be His hands and feet and mouths to love and serve those countless unborn babies, troubled mothers, and sick and dying children of God. You do this in your own homes and congregations by reflecting Christ's love to those around you, and you do this by supporting our work at Lutherans For Life through your prayers and financial gifts.

I thank God for you all. I am thankful that He has preached His Word to you and has created faith in you by the power of His Holy Spirit. And I am thankful that He has motivated you to share that Word with others, that they too might know the love of Christ and the promise of life that is found only in Him.

I pray that our meditation on the suffering and dying of our Lord will be a blessing to you and that those blessings will continue to extend from you to all your neighbors.

FOR ALL WHO WILL BELIEVE

BY REV. DR. ARIC FENSKE

In the 17th chapter of his Gospel account, St. John gives us a front-row view of our Lord's final moments before being arrested and sentenced to death. In these last hours, we see Jesus doing something remarkable. He's praying. That may not sound all that surprising at first—until we see who He was praying for. In the face of torture, ridicule, and death, Jesus didn't pray for Himself, He prayed for His disciples and "for those who will believe in Me through their word" (John 17:20).

In those last agonizing moments, Jesus prayed for His Church, for the generations of believers who would come to faith after His resurrection and ascension through the ministry of the apostles. In other words, Jesus spent His last hours praying for you! Before He offered up His life as a ransom for your sins, He prayed that one day you would hear this Good News, believe it by faith, and receive His salvation unto everlasting life.

I don't know about you, but it is both humbling and awe-inspiring to know that Jesus was thinking of me and of my salvation as He walked that lonely road through the valley of the shadow of death. What love He must have for me!

Of course, that love is not just for me, or for you, but for all "who will believe" in Him. Jesus shows His love for every one of His precious sheep in this prayer. He prayed for countless others whose faces and names are known only to Him—unborn children, single mothers, the diseased and the dying. Jesus prayed for them all before He died because He died for them all.

And that means that you were not only the subject of Jesus' prayer that night in the garden of Gethsemane; in a way, you are also the answer to that prayer because God, in His grace, has chosen you to be His hands and feet and mouths to love and serve those countless unborn babies, troubled mothers, and sick and dying children of God. You do this in your own homes and congregations by reflecting Christ's love to those around you, and you do this by supporting our work at Lutherans For Life through your prayers and financial gifts.

I thank God for you all. I am thankful that He has preached His Word to you and has created faith in you by the power of His Holy Spirit. And I am thankful that He has motivated you to share that Word with others, that they too might know the love of Christ and the promise of life that is found only in Him.

I pray that our meditation on the suffering and dying of our Lord will be a blessing to you and that those blessings will continue to extend from you to all your neighbors.

