Equipping Lutherans and their neighbors to be Gospel-motivated voices For Life

LIFE NEWS—NOVEMBER 2026

LUTHERANS FOR LIFE

lutheransforlife.org

Life Newsbytes

Hall of Fame coach and longtime NBC Sports analyst Tony Dungy said he is "pretty sure" his public Christian faith and pro-life views contributed to the network ending his 17-year run earlier this year. Dungy joined NBC in 2009 for "Football Night in America." He told former ESPN anchor Sage Steele on "The Sage Steele Show" that executives informed him and colleague Rodney Harrison they wanted "a little younger" on-air talent and to reshape the show. He confirmed the exit in a March 12 statement on X, thanking the network and citing Romans 8:28 while saying he was unsure of his next step. Steele suggested the departure "was tied to you being more and more vocal about your beliefs with faith, with being pro-life." Dungy did not dispute it. "There are some things that, I guess in TV especially, they want you to be careful about because they want to attract everybody," Dungy said. "They want to have an audience of everyone. They don't always appreciate you speaking about your faith. But for me, I'm always going to do that. I'm going to try and do it in a respectful way, but people are going to know that I'm a Christian." He cited his 2023 March for Life appearance in Washington, D.C., as a source of tension. He did not seek permission beforehand … He said he looked back on 17 years of good times. (lifenews.com/2026/10/22/tony-dungy-pretty-sure-nbc-fired-me-because-im-pro-life)

Speaking up For Life

"We know that there will always be changes in laws and politics, and we can only change that as best as we can. The comfort that we do know is that the Father does not change like shifting shadows. In today's world, changes are swift and inevitable, but our faith and trust in our unchanging God are the comforts that sustain us!" Diane Albers, President of Lutherans For Life

"God creates, redeems, and calls all human beings as His own precious treasures from fertilization to forever, regardless of ages, appearances, abilities, or impairments. The Gospel of Jesus Christ invites us to an honest humility and an enthusiastic hope that receive each one as gift and privilege!" Pastor Michael Salemink, Lutherans For Life

"When life around us is dark and despairing, when troubles are real and overwhelming, when our hurts outweigh our joys, take a moment to think about God's beautiful creation given for us as a 'good and perfect gift.' Take a moment to remember that we have another Light in our world—our Lord Jesus who is the Creator of all things and is the light of men." Barbara Lane Geistfeld, DVM, Lutherans For Life

WORD OF HOPE word-of-hope.org

Y4Life.org Y4 LIFE

Congregational House of Refuge

The Congregational House of Refuge program assists congregations to equip their members and neighbors to prevent abortions, provide healing for those affected by previous abortions, and protect the unborn and the vulnerable in their community.

The Congregational House of Refuge represents a Gospel-motivated witness and service For Life. Your Gospel-motivated voice For Life is embodying God's truth and Christ's love to receive every human life as a blessing—no matter what size, skills, or circumstances.

SHINE YOUR LIGHT INTERNALLY AND EXTERNALLY, SHARING HOW YOUR CONGREGATION IS A SAFE PLACE.

A Congregational House of Refuge congregation commits publicly and lovingly to support its members and neighbors experiencing an unplanned pregnancy. Giving voice to the Congregational House of Refuge Statement embodies this commitment. The formal designation makes the church a refuge for anyone to feel safe, encouraged, and supported, while receiving the delights that come with carrying and caring for a child. To become a Congregational House of Refuge:

- The pastor reviews the program carefully recommending it to church leaders.
- The congregational leaders review and approve the program.
- The leaders share the program with the congregation for approval.
- The pastor reads a commitment statement in worship twice a year.
- The congregation becomes involved through mentoring, praying, and designating a representative to oversee the program details.

CONGREGATIONAL HOUSE OF REFUGE

Visit LFL's website, under the Frontlines tab, to view the Congregational House of Refuge program resources: Program Guide, the Congregational House of Refuge Statement, and the Congregational House of Refuge Commissioning and Installation Litany. For more information on the Congregational House of Refuge, please reach out to Volunteer Relations at info@lutheransforlife.org.

lutheransforlife.org/congregational-house-of-refuge

Equipping Lutherans and their neighbors to be Gospel-motivated voices For Life

LIFE NEWS—NOVEMBER 2026

LUTHERANS FOR LIFE

lutheransforlife.org

Life Newsbytes

Hall of Fame coach and longtime NBC Sports analyst Tony Dungy said he is "pretty sure" his public Christian faith and pro-life views contributed to the network ending his 17-year run earlier this year. Dungy joined NBC in 2009 for "Football Night in America." He told former ESPN anchor Sage Steele on "The Sage Steele Show" that executives informed him and colleague Rodney Harrison they wanted "a little younger" on-air talent and to reshape the show. He confirmed the exit in a March 12 statement on X, thanking the network and citing Romans 8:28 while saying he was unsure of his next step. Steele suggested the departure "was tied to you being more and more vocal about your beliefs with faith, with being pro-life." Dungy did not dispute it. "There are some things that, I guess in TV especially, they want you to be careful about because they want to attract everybody," Dungy said. "They want to have an audience of everyone. They don't always appreciate you speaking about your faith. But for me, I'm always going to do that. I'm going to try and do it in a respectful way, but people are going to know that I'm a Christian." He cited his 2023 March for Life appearance in Washington, D.C., as a source of tension. He did not seek permission beforehand … He said he looked back on 17 years of good times. (lifenews.com/2026/10/22/tony-dungy-pretty-sure-nbc-fired-me-because-im-pro-life)

Speaking up For Life

"We know that there will always be changes in laws and politics, and we can only change that as best as we can. The comfort that we do know is that the Father does not change like shifting shadows. In today's world, changes are swift and inevitable, but our faith and trust in our unchanging God are the comforts that sustain us!" Diane Albers, President of Lutherans For Life

"God creates, redeems, and calls all human beings as His own precious treasures from fertilization to forever, regardless of ages, appearances, abilities, or impairments. The Gospel of Jesus Christ invites us to an honest humility and an enthusiastic hope that receive each one as gift and privilege!" Pastor Michael Salemink, Lutherans For Life

"When life around us is dark and despairing, when troubles are real and overwhelming, when our hurts outweigh our joys, take a moment to think about God's beautiful creation given for us as a 'good and perfect gift.' Take a moment to remember that we have another Light in our world—our Lord Jesus who is the Creator of all things and is the light of men." Barbara Lane Geistfeld, DVM, Lutherans For Life

WORD OF HOPE word-of-hope.org
Y4Life.org Y4 LIFE

Equipping Lutherans and their neighbors to be Gospel-motivated voices For Life

LIFE NEWS—NOVEMBER 2026

LUTHERANS FOR LIFE

lutheransforlife.org

Life Newsbytes

Hall of Fame coach and longtime NBC Sports analyst Tony Dungy said he is "pretty sure" his public Christian faith and pro-life views contributed to the network ending his 17-year run earlier this year. Dungy joined NBC in 2009 for "Football Night in America." He told former ESPN anchor Sage Steele on "The Sage Steele Show" that executives informed him and colleague Rodney Harrison they wanted "a little younger" on-air talent and to reshape the show. He confirmed the exit in a March 12 statement on X, thanking the network and citing Romans 8:28 while saying he was unsure of his next step. Steele suggested the departure "was tied to you being more and more vocal about your beliefs with faith, with being pro-life." Dungy did not dispute it. "There are some things that, I guess in TV especially, they want you to be careful about because they want to attract everybody," Dungy said. "They want to have an audience of everyone. They don't always appreciate you speaking about your faith. But for me, I'm always going to do that. I'm going to try and do it in a respectful way, but people are going to know that I'm a Christian." He cited his 2023 March for Life appearance in Washington, D.C., as a source of tension. He did not seek permission beforehand … He said he looked back on 17 years of good times. (lifenews.com/2026/10/22/tony-dungy-pretty-sure-nbc-fired-me-because-im-pro-life)

Speaking up For Life

"We know that there will always be changes in laws and politics, and we can only change that as best as we can. The comfort that we do know is that the Father does not change like shifting shadows. In today's world, changes are swift and inevitable, but our faith and trust in our unchanging God are the comforts that sustain us!" Diane Albers, President of Lutherans For Life

"God creates, redeems, and calls all human beings as His own precious treasures from fertilization to forever, regardless of ages, appearances, abilities, or impairments. The Gospel of Jesus Christ invites us to an honest humility and an enthusiastic hope that receive each one as gift and privilege!" Pastor Michael Salemink, Lutherans For Life

"When life around us is dark and despairing, when troubles are real and overwhelming, when our hurts outweigh our joys, take a moment to think about God's beautiful creation given for us as a 'good and perfect gift.' Take a moment to remember that we have another Light in our world—our Lord Jesus who is the Creator of all things and is the light of men." Barbara Lane Geistfeld, DVM, Lutherans For Life

WORD OF HOPE word-of-hope.org
Y4Life.org Y4 LIFE

Congregational House of Refuge

The Congregational House of Refuge program assists congregations to equip their members and neighbors to prevent abortions, provide healing for those affected by previous abortions, and protect the unborn and the vulnerable in their community.

The Congregational House of Refuge represents a Gospel-motivated witness and service For Life. Your Gospel-motivated voice For Life is embodying God's truth and Christ's love to receive every human life as a blessing—no matter what size, skills, or circumstances.

SHINE YOUR LIGHT INTERNALLY AND EXTERNALLY, SHARING HOW YOUR CONGREGATION IS A SAFE PLACE.

A Congregational House of Refuge congregation commits publicly and lovingly to support its members and neighbors experiencing an unplanned pregnancy. Giving voice to the Congregational House of Refuge Statement embodies this commitment. The formal designation makes the church a refuge for anyone to feel safe, encouraged, and supported, while receiving the delights that come with carrying and caring for a child. To become a Congregational House of Refuge:

- The pastor reviews the program carefully recommending it to church leaders.
- The congregational leaders review and approve the program.
- The leaders share the program with the congregation for approval.
- The pastor reads a commitment statement in worship twice a year.
- The congregation becomes involved through mentoring, praying, and designating a representative to oversee the program details.

CONGREGATIONAL HOUSE OF REFUGE

Visit LFL's website, under the Frontlines tab, to view the Congregational House of Refuge program resources: Program Guide, the Congregational House of Refuge Statement, and the Congregational House of Refuge Commissioning and Installation Litany. For more information on the Congregational House of Refuge, please reach out to Volunteer Relations at info@lutheransforlife.org.

lutheransforlife.org/congregational-house-of-refuge

Congregational House of Refuge

The Congregational House of Refuge program assists congregations to equip their members and neighbors to prevent abortions, provide healing for those affected by previous abortions, and protect the unborn and the vulnerable in their community.

The Congregational House of Refuge represents a Gospel-motivated witness and service For Life. Your Gospel-motivated voice For Life is embodying God's truth and Christ's love to receive every human life as a blessing—no matter what size, skills, or circumstances.

SHINE YOUR LIGHT INTERNALLY AND EXTERNALLY, SHARING HOW YOUR CONGREGATION IS A SAFE PLACE.

A Congregational House of Refuge congregation commits publicly and lovingly to support its members and neighbors experiencing an unplanned pregnancy. Giving voice to the Congregational House of Refuge Statement embodies this commitment. The formal designation makes the church a refuge for anyone to feel safe, encouraged, and supported, while receiving the delights that come with carrying and caring for a child. To become a Congregational House of Refuge:

- The pastor reviews the program carefully recommending it to church leaders.
- The congregational leaders review and approve the program.
- The leaders share the program with the congregation for approval.
- The pastor reads a commitment statement in worship twice a year.
- The congregation becomes involved through mentoring, praying, and designating a representative to oversee the program details.

CONGREGATIONAL HOUSE OF REFUGE

Visit LFL's website, under the Frontlines tab, to view the Congregational House of Refuge program resources: Program Guide, the Congregational House of Refuge Statement, and the Congregational House of Refuge Commissioning and Installation Litany. For more information on the Congregational House of Refuge, please reach out to Volunteer Relations at info@lutheransforlife.org.

lutheransforlife.org/congregational-house-of-refuge

